FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1904.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Was authorized to announce

DR. JOHN D. CLARKY.

of the Kentucky county, as a candidate for Congress in the district.

The President yesterday vetoed the Bland-Jessup bill which provided for the coinage of the $4,000,000 of silver bullion coined by the government. This step had been predicted for some days and consequently was not a surprise. It is nevertheless a bad thing for the Democratic party for Mr. Cleveland could not restrain his mouth towards silver. But in the interest of party harmony and success.

It is a hard blow and one that will be incalculable harm to the Democratic party.

Laffoon and Vance spoke at Harveys

Monday.

As Senator J. S. Warthan, of Lexington, has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Fourth district.

Hon. Joe M. Kendall, who served part of his father's term in Congress, has announced himself a candidate in the Tenth District, against Representative Laid.

Howard Gould, like his brother George, will marry an actress. His engagement has been announced to Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, known on the stage as Odette Tyler.

Col. E. Polk Johnson, Special

Agent of the Treasury Department, has had his headquarters changed from Chicago to Louisville. He is of course delighted at being removed to his old home in "Old Kentucky," and looks after the law cases in his own home.

Capt. D. C. Walker, chairman of the Democratic committee of the Second Judicial District, is said to be a candidate to succeed Judge Rogers on Circuit Judge. Such is possible.

There are wheels and wheels within wheels.

Among the candidates for Senator from Georgia, Hon. S. B. Bryant,

Hon. S. M. Leman, Hon. J. H. Han-mond, Col. Pat Walsh and Hon. R.

S. Mitchell are the most prominent.

Mr. Northern will be elected, but but a few silver men, which it is undoubtedly scarce on Mr. Bryant.

Mr. Dan Ritchey, manager of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, gave a "stag supper" to a number of his friends last evening. He took the guests to the celebrate the completion of the refurnishing of the hotel. Supper was serving in the dining room to thirty men at 12 o'clock. The menu was the most elaborate ever given up by the hotel since the late war. The guests and the menu were of the highest and was continued until an early hour this morning, and the affair was in every way most enjoyable.—Courtesy.

The President Capitol speaks disapprovingly of the action of the Christian State Democratic Committee in advising a resolution endorsing of Judge Bennett on the ground that advising should occupy a "judicial position." In this case the candidate was a former citizen of Christian county and the committee did not to consider the claims of an outside. It was stated, as a consult to select county attorney and deposed the resolution against Judge Bennett as a compliment to a former citizen of the county, who is now loathly the choice of the county over

GREEN OF NEWS.

Mr. Wood's business Estimated at Nearly $40,000.

Hon. Hunter Wood's failure is still the talk of the town and there is much speculation as to what the cause of the insolvency will be.

No schedule of liabilities will be prepared and it is doubtful if Mr.

Wood himself knows what his liabilities are. His affairs as Master Commissioner, as guardian, as assignee in several cases, his law business, his newspaper business, and his private investments, are all complicated and mixed up until it is hard to tell just how they stand.

The Master Commissioner's indebitness seems to be about $22,000 or thereabouts, which is probably half that much. If the business cannot pay out, the business will fall in the hands of the Master Commissioner at about equal to the active shovers. As assignee for W. B. Redford, Mr. Wood is liable $2,000. In this case Mr. H. S. Green is his bond-man.

As assignee for the Metropolitan Manufacturing Co., he had never made a settlement and it is said he was owed $7,500. On this bond

Mr. Wood is sure, making him liable for the bond a good one.

As guardian for Harry Lipson, he is liable $10,000. He is also liable $1,700. Mr. S. B. Green is also on his bond, with Lee Harris, now of Cincinnati, who formerly lived here in the city.

Mr. Wood's liability on the bonds was not paid for except the first payment. It is estimated that he owes $40,000 in all owing on the secured by his bonds.

The New Essex property is stocked in which Mr. Wood is a partner and he has $500. The plant is mortgaged for $2,000 and same stock is hypothecated to secure several thousand dollars. The same stock is owned by larger liability, which with the commissioner figures aggregate nearly $40,000. Mr. Wood is a very careful man and he has a great deal of information. It is impossible to come near to an estimate of the total amount of his liabilities.

Mr. Wood is much depressed over his misfortune, but with his old time energy he will make an attempt to get out of his predicament. The business of the firm is now being devoted to the work of running business who will lose by his loss of home in "Old Kentucky," and own home.

of his predicament. The business men in the law, have been admitted to the bar. They have been practicing law for some
